

Duty Dress Standards, Uniform Requirements, and Grooming

203.1 PURPOSE:

To provide guidelines related to duty dress standards, uniform requirements, and grooming.

203.2 DEFINITIONS:

Class A: A Department-issued formal dress uniform typically consisting of dress pants, a long sleeve shirt, tie, patent leather uniform shoe, or black boot, all leather dress belt, duty belt, holsters, magazine pouch, cuff case, etc. It may also include white gloves and a duty dress cap. Staff shall only wear Department-approved/issued Class A uniforms and/or items in accordance with the Department's approved arrangement. Short sleeved shirts shall not be worn as Class A dress attire; however, they may be worn in limited and appropriate circumstances in less formal settings.

Class B: A non-uniform "business formal" dress style typically intended for court appearances, public appearances/presentations, business meetings, events, etc. where a professional image is required.

Class C: A non-uniform "business casual" dress style typically intended for office work, training, limited public appearances, casual meetings, limited or no interaction with the public, etc.

Class D: A Department-issued uniform intended for fieldwork and/or facility operations. Typically consists of Department-issued Tactical Battle Dress Uniform pants (BDUs), a Department-issued duty shirt, a black belt, and duty boots. For field officers, a black Department-issued t-shirt and tactical vest may also be acceptable. Safety equipment and/or a duty belt should be worn pursuant to requirements.

Department-Issued Duty Shirts: A navy blue polo/golf style collared shirt, either long or short sleeved, with a gold embroidered probation badge on the upper left breast, with the lettering "San Bernardino County," arched over the badge, and "Probation" underneath the badge. Gold embroidered patches indicating "San Bernardino County Probation" are located on the upper shoulders of both sleeves. The first initial and last name of the officer is embroidered on the upper right breast. Rank of Division Director and above may be embroidered underneath the officer's name on the upper right breast. Rank insignia (e.g. PCSI/POIII: 2 chevrons; PCSII/SPO: 3 chevrons; DDI: Single gold bar; DDII: Double gold bars; DCPO: 2 gold stars; ACPO: 3 gold stars; CPO: 4 gold stars) may be located on the shoulders or the collar.

Department-Issued Polo Shirts: A polo/golf style collared sport shirt, either long or short sleeved, with approved Department/County lettering, seal, badges, etc. These shirts may be issued to both sworn and non-sworn staff and may be worn as part of Class C dress. These shirts are not authorized to be worn for field work.

Department-Issued T-Shirt: A black crew neck t-shirt, either long or short sleeved, with a gold printed probation badge on the upper left breast, with the lettering "San Bernardino County," arched over the badge, and "Probation" underneath the badge. Gold printed patches indicating "San Bernardino County Probation" are located on the upper shoulders of both sleeves.

Department-Issued Duty Jacket: A black cold-weather jacket with a gold embroidered probation badge on the upper left breast, with the lettering "San Bernardino County," arched over the badge, and "Probation" underneath the badge. Gold embroidered patches indicating "San Bernardino County Probation" are located on the upper shoulders of both sleeves. The first initial and last name of the officer is embroidered on the upper right breast. Rank insignia may be located on the shoulders or the collar.

203.3 RESPONSIBILITIES:

- I. All Staff:
 - A. Shall dress in Class A-D attire consistent with classification, job duties, assignment, rank, etc.
 - B. Shall dress in a professional, appropriate manner and in compliance with County policy and this procedure.
 - C. Shall wear their Department/County-issued ID badge in a fully visible manner, while on duty and in Class B and C dress, unless authorized by the Chief Probation Officer or their designee due to safety issues/cases where wearing the ID badge will interfere with the execution of duties, etc.
