San Bernardino County Probation Department

Procedures Manual

Telephone Access (Title 15, Section 1376)

- A. No later than one (1) hour after intake at the Treatment Facility, a youth will be advised by the PCO of their right to a successfully completed telephone call to a parent or guardian/ a responsible relative.
- B. Document the youth telephone calls offered and completed in the youth's overview/Events/Create Event/Family Contact screen in CE.

III. Living Unit:

- A. Youth will use the community telephone on the living unit. All calls are subject to being terminated due to the youth's behavior, time constraints, and institutional emergencies. Youth will be allowed to complete telephone calls at reasonable times that do not interfere with essential activities of the program (i.e., meals, school, hygiene, or bedtime, etc.). In the event that youth are off the unit for a medical appointment, Court appearance, etc., they will be given first priority at the next immediate shift.
- B. All calls not completed are to have a logged explanation for not being completed in the telephone log book. Telephone privileges may only be revoked by the area Supervisor. A youth damaging a telephone is liable for repair cost and may lose telephone privileges for up to thirty (30) days.

IV. Treatment Facility:

- A. Youth in the treatment facility will be allowed necessary telephone calls for the purpose of family reunification, getting or maintaining employment, attending college, or banking purposes.
- B. In the event that a youth has a block placed on his residence telephone, the supervisor may allow a one-time telephone call dialed by staff to a verifiable number using the desk telephone and advise family members regarding the restriction.
- C. Unit staff will not listen in on the calls, but will lend proximity supervision.
