10 People Arrested During San Bernardino Adult Compliance Operation

The San Bernardino County Probation Department conducted a compliance operation on Wednesday, September 28 to ensure those on probation were complying with their conditions of supervision and were provide resources and services as needed.

During Wednesday's operation, 70 home visits were attempted. Ten offenders were taken into custody for probation violations, new law violations or outstanding warrants. Officers confiscated a rifle, 2 handguns, ammunition, 11 ounces of cocaine and approximately 1000 Fentanyl pills. In addition, over $9500 in cash and items related to the distribution and sales of narcotics were seized.

"The mission of the Probation Department is to protect the community," said Chief Probation Officer Tracy Reece. These operations are conducted to increase public safety, while ensuring those on probation are held accountable when found to be in violation."

The San Bernardino County Probation Department, the San Bernardino County Sheriff's Department and San Bernardino Police Department collaborated on the eight hour operation. Chief Reece remarked at the onset of the operation, "We are stronger when we work together."
