

Blood borne Pathogen-Fire Safety
Cert: 02939431

Course Summary:

Blood borne Pathogen, staff will identify and understand Regulations and Standards, Blood borne Pathogens, Exposure and Injury Prevention, and Post-Exposure Actions. Fire Safety staff will identify and understand The Components of fire, OSHA regulations, Flammable materials, Reducing potential fires, Faulty or improperly used equipment, Flammable substances, Improper disposal, Fire extinguishers, Class of extinguisher, Selecting the right class, Preparation and use of fire extinguishers, and, What to do in case of fire

Performance Objectives

“Gain a better understanding of OSHA's requirements regarding BBP. Know the definition of BBPs, types, and how they are transmitted. Know how to recognize potential BBP hazards and be able to take appropriate action when they are observed. Know how to prevent BBP transmission. Know what to do during a workplace exposure.” “List the four components needed to start and sustain a fire. Identify 5 classes of fires and the types of extinguishers used on each class. List the steps that should be followed to properly use a fire extinguisher and respond to a fire in the workplace. Identify and explain the four steps to take when you discover a fire.”